I am thrilled to apply for the Catering Assistant position at the University of Hull. As a current Computer Science student at Hull and a former Production Operative at Reckitt Benckiser, I bring a unique blend of technical skills, teamwork, and customer service experience. I am eager to contribute my energy and enthusiasm to the vibrant campus environment.

At Reckitt Benckiser, I excelled in a high-paced production role where teamwork and efficiency were key. I ensured quality in pharmaceutical manufacturing, collaborated seamlessly with my team, and communicated complex technical information clearly and confidently. These experiences have prepared me to thrive in the dynamic, multi-faceted role of a Catering Assistant.

My academic journey in Computer Science has sharpened my problem-solving abilities and adaptability, enabling me to manage multiple responsibilities effectively. Balancing my studies with work, I have developed a knack for time management and a proactive attitude skills that I am excited to bring to your team.

The diverse responsibilities of this position, from serving barista coffee at The Pantry to assisting with sports activities and events at the Rugby League Hub, are incredibly appealing to me. I am passionate about engaging with customers and contributing to a fun and dynamic team, always aiming to deliver excellent service and memorable experiences.

I am confident that my background, combined with my enthusiasm and quick-learning nature, makes me a perfect fit for this role. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I am excited about the possibility of joining your team and contributing to the vibrant campus life at the University of Hull.

Warm regards,

Imade Daniel
